

Magical Moon Holiday Calendar of Events

Light the night for our Knights!

On Sat. November 25th We're Lighting up Magical Moon Farm at 575 Summer Street in Marshfield MA. in honor of all our young knights fighting to stay alive daily with cancer or other conditions.

The public is invited to help celebrate their lives by bringing lights and decorating a part of the farm.

Santa's Workshop

Also on Sat November 25th The Teamster's Women's Committee will be wrapping gifts for the knights and their families. Anyone with last minute gifts and gift certificates please make sure they are here before this day. Thank you!

Magical Moon, Holiday Open House.

Food, music, artists and lots of holiday cheer
from 10 am- 4:30 pm On Sat Dec 2nd

Please come visit our new kitchen pantry. It's filled with healthy foods and beverages and nourishing alternatives! Oli will be demonstrating glass blowing. Adam will be here with his gorgeous rose creations, Marianne Englander will be displaying her medicine jewelry, Monique Miller-McCarthy will be displaying her AT journey images, Bea Green will be greeting our visitors and Donna Green will be on hand to sign books and art.

Friday, Dec 8th, 15th & 22nd Moon Lady Studio

Burnt Moose Day at Magical Moon Farm

A yearly tradition of celebrating all the things that can go wrong and making them into something beautiful. The children and families of Magical Moon Foundation are invited on this day to make holiday cookies in the Magical Moon Kitchens. Wear something silly and festive and come ready to laugh till it hurts.

Sunday Dec 17th 10 am . Bring your favorite cookie dough recipe all mixed. We supply the sprinkles!

Magical Moon Farm's First Annual Living Nativity

Friday Dec 22nd at 4 pm. Come dressed warmly. We encourage period clothing if you are able. This is a quiet, beautiful ceremony inviting all to come share the blessings of the season around a large fire and in front of the manger of miracles. There will be live music by many and we will be serving chili, cornbread and hot chocolate. and burnt moose cookies!

All are encouraged and welcome to attend.
Please park across the street to the left.

Thank you everyone for helping Magical Moon Farm to be a place of safety and healing for so many.
Have a wonderful holiday season and we hope to see you at our events!
